National Domestic Violence Court Technical Assistance Webinar Series

TOPIC: Expanding Language Access in the Courts:
Innovative Training Solutions from New Mexico

DATE: Monday, June 9

TIME: 3:00—4:30 p.m. EST

Please join us for a webinar highlighting the New Mexico Language Access Center (NMCLA), a program of the New Mexico Administrative Office of the Courts that offers online training programs for certified and non-certified court interpreters, as well as other bi-lingual court professionals. Funded by the State Justice Institute and in partnership with the National Center for State Courts, NMCLA is able to offer certification and professional development programs that aim to build interpreter and staff capacity and expand language access in the courts. Faculty will discuss and demonstrate pieces of the curriculum, how they've incorporated domestic violence into their training content, and how jurisdictions can access the training.

MODERATOR:

Liberty Aldrich, Center for Court Innovation

FACULTY:

Paula Couselo-Findikoglu, Director, New Mexico Center for Language Access, NM AOC

Pamela Sánchez, Statewide Program Manager, Language Access Services, NM AOC

Marco Hanson, Language Access Coordinator, Texas Office of Court Administration

Susan Keilitz, Principal Court Research Consultant, National Center for State Courts

PARTICIPANT ELIGIBILITY:

This webinar was created for OVW Justice for Families Program/Courts Project and GTEAP grantees, but is open to the public.
